FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This case has been referred to the United States magistrate judge for pretrial management pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and a standing order of reference from the district court. The findings and recommendation of the magistrate judge are as follow:

I.

This is a civil action in the nature of mandamus brought by Abraham Indalecio Torres, appearing pro se, seeking an order compelling the clerk of court to enter a final judgment and issue a writ of execution in a closed case. Petitioner tendered his complaint to the district clerk on March 18, 2010. However, he did not pay the statutory filing fee or seek leave to proceed in forma pauperis. The court notified petitioner of this deficiency on April 14, 2010. Petitioner was ordered to either pay the filing fee or seek leave to proceed in forma pauperis within 20 days, or his complaint would be dismissed. See Order, 4/14/10. No corrective action was taken in response to that order. On May 13, 2010, the court again ordered petitioner to correct this deficiency, and reminded him that the failure to do so "may result in the imposition of sanctions, including dismissal of this action for want of prosecution." See Order, 5/13/10. To date, petitioner has not paid the statutory filing fee or sought leave to proceed in forma pauperis. The court now determines that this case should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

II.

A district court has authority to dismiss a case for want of prosecution or for failure to comply with a court order. FED. R. CIV. P. 41(b); Larson v. Scott, 157 F.3d 1030, 1031 (5th Cir. 1998). This authority "flows from the court's inherent power to control its docket and prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases." Boudwin v. Graystone Insurance Co., 756 F.2d 399, 401 (5th Cir. 1985), citing Link v. Wabash Railroad Co., 370 U.S. 626, 82 S.Ct. 1386, 8 L.Ed.2d 734 (1962). Such a dismissal may be with or without prejudice. See Long v. Simmons, 77 F.3d 878, 879-80 (5th Cir. 1996). A dismissal with prejudice is appropriate only if the failure to comply with the court order was the result of purposeful delay or contumacious conduct and the imposition of lesser sanctions would be futile. Id.; see also Berry v. CIGNA/RSI-CIGNA, 975 F.2d 1188, 1191 (5th Cir. 1992).

Petitioner has not paid the statutory filing fee or sought leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Until he does so, this litigation cannot proceed. Petitioner was twice notified of this deficiency and warned that the failure to pay the filing fee or seek leave to proceed in forma pauperis would result in the dismissal of his case. Both orders have been ignored. Under these circumstances, dismissal is clearly warranted. See Montfort v. State Bar of Texas, No. 3-08-CV-0514-G, 2008 WL 2389809 at *1 (N.D. Tex. Jun. 11, 2008) (dismissing pro se civil action without prejudice where plaintiff failed to comply with two court orders requiring him to either pay the statutory filing fee or seek leave to proceed in forma pauperis).

RECOMMENDATION

This case should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of this report and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).

DATED: June 8, 2010.
